OCALA, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, JUNE 29 1906.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Born—Friday afternoon, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Livingston, a daughter.

"Go south, young man," is about to measure popularity with Horace Greeley's maxim, "to go west."

We understand that a big turpentine combination was formed yesterday.

Mrs. Edward Badger went down to Wildwood Saturday afternoon to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Level, for a short while.

The laxative effect of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is so noticeable and so natural that you do not realize it is the effect of a medicine. For sale by all druggists.

Mrs. Emma White, of Citra, who attended several of the meetings of the Epworth League in this city, returned to her home Friday afternoon.

Mr. Henry Watterson was born in the District of Columbia, hence belongs to the whole nation. As a running mate with Bryan this will not lessen his popularity.

I have a good traveling position to offer the right party; experience unnecessary; must come well recommended and ready to start to work at once. Address, T. A. Roquemore, Ocala, Fla.

Thursday half holiday is a move in the right direction. All work and no play, especially during the hot season, is calculated to make Jack a dull boy. This "half holiday" will make better clerks for Ocala.

Mr. A. L. Webb, who purchased the Finch residence from Mr. Alfred Marsh some time ago, has sold the same to Dr. Hy Robinson, of Jacksonville. Mr. Webb will continue to occupy the residence for the present.

The Epworth Leaguers fell in love with Ocala and Ocala fell in love with them. The admiration was mutual, and our little city will look to their second coming with a great deal of pleasure.

Judge Lumpkin, of South Carolina, has entered the senatorial arena against Senator Tillman. Senator Tillman has grown so large in the public estimation it will be quite hard to dethrone him.

The Misses Van Brunt, of Tallahassee, who have been attending the Epworth League conference, were entertained by Mrs. William McIlwain. Their brother, Mr. William Van Brunt, who was also a delegate, was with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Thagard. These young people are the nephew and nieces of Mr. Richard Van Brunt, formerly of this city. Miss Kate Michler, also a delegate from Tallahassee, was entertained by Mrs. G. W. Martin.

Miss Lillian Nichols, of Apalachicola, was among the delegates at the Epworth League convention this week. She attended the south Georgia conference at Thomasville and brought greetings from that body to the conference in this city. Miss Nichols expects soon to go as a missionary to Corea.

Col. Henry Watterson, the brilliant and gifted Louisville Courier-Journal editor, delivered a speech at the commencement banquet of Brown University at Providence, R. I. and took for his text "Sectionalism," and handled it in a manner that did credit to his patriotism and citizenship. In a country so grand and built on such lofty ideals as our own there should be no room for sectionalism.

L. M. Graham and son, J. M., of Ocala, have returned to their home, after a brief visit here, having been summoned on account of the marriage of the former's son, D. M. Graham, to Miss Stennie Dickinson. The Graham's are prominent people of Marion county, and have many friends in this section.—Gainesville Sun.

Mrs. Muller and son, John, of Miami, after a brief visit in Ocala, returned to Citra yesterday, where they are on a visit to Mrs. Muller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Barcus.

Prof. Dwight E. Arnold, a former resident of this city, but of late years located at Tampa, was in the city today shaking hands with his friends. He is at present located at Floral City, where he has quite a large class in vocal and instrumental music. He has had quite flattering offers to open a class in this city, in fact, a sufficient number have already signified their intention to join a class to make it almost a certainty that he will at least spend several months here.

Graham-Dickinson Nuptials.

One of the most important weddings that has transpired in Gainesville for some time was the marriage of Dillon Lorentus Graham and Miss Stennie Dickinson, daughter of Captain and Mrs. William DeVana Dickinson, which occurred at Kavanagh Methodist church at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, June 20th.

As early as half-past six the church was crowded, and the ushers were kept busy in an endeavor to seat those who arrived late.

Promptly at the hour Mrs. Truss Denby, the organist at the church and a personal friend of the bride, began Lohengrin's wedding march, to which the couple marched down the aisle, accompanied by J. M. Graham, of Ocala, a brother of the groom, and Miss Nannie Dickinson, a sister of the bride, Mr. McClerkin and Miss Lina Tousey, attendants. Upon arriving at the altar the ceremony was performed in a most impressive manner by Rev. T. J. Nixon.

After the ceremony Mrs. Denby played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the happy couple and the attendants left the church.

Messrs. Huffman, Bayer, Ott and White acted as ushers.

The church was most appropriately decorated for the occasion with floral designs, and presented a handsome appearance.

The groom is one of the most widely known and most popular young men of the city. He holds a responsible position, being agent of the Southern Express Company at this point, and is quite popular. The bride is one of Gainesville's fairest and most popular young ladies, and one who has made many friends here by her affectionate and hospitable disposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham left on the early morning Seaboard train for Asheville, N. C., where they will spend their honeymoon. They took with them the best wishes of their numerous friends here.—Gainesville Sun.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban Diarrhoea is as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is only one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs, of Houston, Tex.: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but this remedy cured him, as our neighbor will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by all druggists.

A Luscious Watermelon.

The editor of this paper is under obligations to Mr. Daniel Cappleman, who resides a few miles east of the city, for a most delicious watermelon. It was large, luscious and the meat a beautiful red. It was the best melon we have seen this season, and we are greatly obliged to Mr. Cappleman for it.

President Roosevelt, it is said, has told visitors that Mr. Bryan will undoubtedly be the democratic nominee and that Mr. Taft on the part of the republicans, alone can defeat him. This is a big boom for Taft. So it looks like the two candidates are already in sight.

Herbert Stuart, the six-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart, died at his home at Silver Springs Friday. The little one had been ill for several months, and his death was not unexpected. The parents have the sympathy of their friends in their bereavement.

Gen. Albert W. Gilchrist, following the example of Bryan, threatens to make a two years' tour of the world, reaching Florida just before the gubernatorial primaries are held. He argues that, things being equal, this will give him a boom that will land him in the executive office. If the genial "gentleman from DeSoto" will send recipes to the housewives of Florida from the various countries that he may visit of the latest "didos" in cooking, it may add immensely to his reputation. That okra recipe is still being remembered with grateful pleasure by the housewives of Florida.

Mrs. S. L. Patterson and little daughter, of Miami, arrived in the city Friday afternoon and are the guests of Mrs. Patterson's aunt, Mrs. W. K. Zawadzki. After they complete their visit in Ocala they will go to Sunny Slope farm near Fellowship to visit Mrs. Patterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barco and her sister, Miss Sue Barco.

PHILLIPS-SIGMON.

Wednesday morning, June 20th, at 9:30 o'clock Mr. W. T. Phillips and Miss Carrie Sigmon were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sigmon, at South Lake Weir. Only a few friends and the immediate relatives were present.

The ceremony, which was very impressive and tenderly spoken, was performed by the Rev. L. W. Moore of Ocala.

After congratulations and best wishes were extended the bridal party and friends repaired to the dining room, where ample justice was done to the wedding breakfast. After the dainties were partaken of, the bridal party were driven to Weirsdale, where they took the Atlantic Coast Line train for Jacksonville, under a shower of rice from their many friends who had gathered to say good bye.

Their honeymoon will be spent in St. Augustine, Jacksonville, and extended to the mountains of North Carolina.

This was one of the prettiest home weddings that has occurred for many years. The color scheme was green and white. Palms and ferns and masses of orange blossoms and white wedding bells being used with artistic effect.

The bride was gowned in a creation of gray silk with white trimmings, carrying a lovely bunch of orange blossoms, and never looked fairer before. The bride is one of Marion's fairest daughters and most efficient teachers. She has taught for the greater part of five years in different parts of the state, her last term being in the Live Oak high school, where all sing praises unto her name. We fail to find words to express the noble traits of character and noble disposition of this fair lady. We can only say that to know her is to love her and the Tampa people are to be congratulated on having among them as sweet a bride as Mrs. Phillips.

The groom has also spent considerable time in this neighborhood. He is a member of Phillips Bros., retail and wholesale grocers of Tampa. He has had several responsible positions in the city and is very popular in Tampa society. Too much can not be said of the noble disposition and amiable character of this young man, and the writer feels assured that with the fair bride he has won, they will glide down life's stream smoothly together.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will be at home to their friends at 1712 Florida avenue, Tampa, after July 1. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have many friends throughout the state and in Ocala who join the writer in congratulations and best wishes.

"A FRIEND."

Deadly Serpent Bites. are as common in India as are stomach and liver disorders with us. For the latter, however, there is a sure remedy, Electric Bitters; the great restorative medicine, of which S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "They restored my wife to perfect health, after years of suffering with dyspepsia, and a chronically torpid liver." Electric Bitters cure chills and fever, malaria, biliousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold on guarantee by Tydings & Co., druggists. Price 50 cts. m

Early Closing.

A petition is being circulated to have our merchants close their stores at three o'clock on Thursday afternoons during the months of July and August.

With one or two exceptions all of our merchants have already signed the petition and we presume that they all will.

This is an excellent movement and we sincerely trust that the "early closing" will obtain in Ocala this summer. The clerks and the proprietors as well need the rest.

If the stores are closed on Thursday afternoons it will be a good afternoon for baseball games in this city and will be a delightful recreation.

Mr. W. L. Martin and Mr. Elbert E. Stevens, editor and business manager of the Crystal River News, were visitors to Ocala Friday. These young gentlemen are making a good paper and will prove valuable citizens to this growing city.

A Big Sale.

We understand that Mr. John D. Robertson and Dr. James E. Chace have purchased the Orr property on Ocklawaha avenue. This is one of the prettiest and most valuable properties in Ocala, and we congratulate these gentlemen on their purchase.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONFERENCE

Third Day's Proceedings Very Interesting and Well Attended.

The morning half hour's religious service was led in a splendid manner by Rev. J. M. Glazier, of New Smyrna, followed by the business session.

Mr. Eugene E. Barnett, of Emory College, was on the program for an address on "The Missionary Department," but as he was unable to be present, sent a very fine paper on this subject, and it was read to the conference by Mr. Woodward, of DeLand, who is also a student at Emory College, preparing for the ministry.

The presiding elders of the different districts made their reports and some time was devoted to the discussion of "Home Missions." The discussion proved to be very interesting, and at its conclusion the conference adjourned until the afternoon. Among those who spoke on this subject was Rev. J. A. Hendry, Rev. Norwood, Rev. J. I. Patterson, and several others.

At three-thirty the conference again assembled.

The religious exercise were in charge of Miss Nicholls, of Apalachicola, who will go as a missionary to Corea.

After the songs and Scripture reading, Miss Nicholls gave a very fine talk on the training school and on proposed work in Corea. Her talk was deeply spiritual and was greatly enjoyed.

At the afternoon session Miss Harrison, a charming young lady of Monticello, made a delightful talk. Miss Harrison was at the training school at Kansas City, Mo., preparing to fit herself as a missionary, but to her great disappointment her health failed her and she has been obliged to give up her plans to go to foreign fields.

In the evening a model devotional service was conducted by Rev. T. J. Nixon, of Gainesville. He was assisted by Mr. Woodward, of DeLand, Mr. Chappell, of Jacksonville, and several others. The topic used was a missionary one, and the talks and discussions proved to be of a great deal of interest.

The singing was led by the Ocala Epworth League.

There will be no session this afternoon in order that the delegates may enjoy a rest and have an opportunity to visit Silver Springs and see more of our city.

Dr. Chas. L. Crow Weds Miss Seabury

Dr. Charles Langley Crow and Miss Nina Seabury were married on the evening of June 12th at the home of the bride, No. 131 Duke street, the Rev. Dr. Beverly D. Tucker officiating, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Henderson, brother-in-law of the groom, of Henderson, N. C.

The bride was attired in a creation of white silk and carried lilies of the valley. The matron of honor, Mrs. M. S. Hicks, of Stamford, Conn., a sister of the bride, was attired in silk mulle over taffeta, and carried bride roses. Mr. George Crow, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The groom's present to the bride was a sunburst of diamonds, besides many other presents from friends of the couple. The interior of the house was handsomely decorated with palms, ferns, and other flowers.

Dr. Crow is professor of Romance and language at the university of Florida, while the bride is the daughter of Mr. William H. Seabury, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Crow left for New York last night, where they will spend several days on their honeymoon. On their return they will be at home to their friends after June 29th, at No. 131 Duke street.—Norfolk (Va.) Landmark.

Judge Call, in deciding the contested case from Nassau county, holds that the county committees are invested with full power to canvass the returns, declare the result, and decide any and all contests as they may arise, and in contests where county officers are involved there is no appeal from the committee's decision. Where a state official is involved an appeal can be made to the state committee.
